Hands Includes Former
U. S. District Attorney, a
Judge, Nurses, Teachers,
Grange Men, Engineers,
Firemen and Agents for Dayton's Committee.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, June 30.—Names of many men of state-wide reputation were found among the lists of legislative agents who neglected to report their receipts and expenditures to the secretary of state, as compiled today for use of the attorney general's department in the investigation which it announced yesterday would be made. The lobby requires all who do any active work to influence legislation, or those who employ lobby representatives, to file detailed statements of what they are paid and what they spend during the course of their legislative work.

The lobby law is general in application and would apply alike to those who spend money and those who do not, it is held. About two hundred lobbyists were registered with the secretary of state during the session of the assembly and only 95 of those had filed statements up to today. Many of the others are known to have received no additional compensation for their legislative activity, yet state officials in authority declared they were not excused from making reports.

Officials who scanned the reports today and compared them with the record of registered lobbyists, declared about half of the hundred who failed to file statements are representatives of the Dayton Citizens' Relief commission, which worked against amendment of the Vanderhede conservancy act. Others are agents for labor interests, business and commercial clubs, teachers and nurses' organizations, and motion picture interests.

Among those whose receipts and expenditures are not on file in the secretary of state's office are the following:

Rutherford Hayes Cox, secretary of the Business Men's club, Cincinnati; M. A. Neff, Cincinnati, president of the Ohio Motion Picture Exhibitors' League; Jacob William Binder, Hackensack, N. J., financial manager of the National Board of Censors; Frank M. Sterrett, Troy, chairman of the Anti-Reservoir committee of Miami county; T. C. Laylin, Norwalk, representative of the Ohio State Grange; D. C. Pemberton, New Vienna, employed by the Dayton Citizens' Relief commission, by the Cleveland Athletic club, the committee of Ohio railways and other interests; U. G. Denman, Toledo, former United States district attorney, representing an insurance company; C. A. Radcliffe, Lancaster, former secretary of the Public Utilities commission, representative of the Railways commission; Charles U. Shryock, who represents (Continued on Page 10, Col. 3.)

Change of One Word May
Invalidate the Civil Service
Law of the Last Legislature

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, O., June 30.—Attorney General Turner will be asked to decide whether the changing of one word in the new state civil service law will invalidate the entire measure. It has been found that the bill as signed by the governor was not identical with that which was passed by the house and senate, but that the word "bureaus," in paragraph 3-A of section 486-B, had been changed in the governor's signed measure to "boards and commissions."

The mistake, probably made in the engrossment of the bill, is not vital to the meaning, it is said, but it does raise the question of validity.

The mistake occurred in the paragraph of the bill which sought to exempt certain boards and commissions from the classified list. This paragraph, as passed by the house and senate, attempted to exempt "the members of all boards and commissions and heads of principal departments and bureaus appointed by the governor or by and with his consent."

GERMAN PAPER IS SARCASTIC IN ITS COMMENTSCONCERNING AMERICAN NOTE
REGARDING NEGOTIATIONS ON THE FREE CLAIM

"What More Does United States Want?"—Says Lusitania Incident Is Closed for Germany.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Via London, June 30.—A Reuter dispatch containing a summary of the United States note, asking Germany to reconsider her refusal to settle by direct diplomatic negotiations the claim arising from the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye, is printed without comment by the Berlin newspapers with the exception of the Rundschau. This paper introduces its article by saying:

"Along with the Lusitania incident, which is true, is settled so far as we are concerned, but is to be looked over again for America's sake comes a change of opinion concerning the sinking of the ship Frye."

The Rundschau asks what more America wants than an offer to pay damages. The paper answers its own question by saying, "It wants here to influence the German method of marine warfare in favor of England and absolutely nothing else can be said."

Rejection by the United States of the proposal for prize court proceedings, the Rundschau contends, is not justified for it maintains damages must be fixed by a prize court and continues:

"Finally the American standpoint that Germany has not the right to hinder the shipment of contraband on American ships simply cannot be considered by us. Germany has this right unconditionally for it is dealing in the protection of its most important interests. As to the means herewith it sees fit to put this right into execution, it does not need any instruction from the United States any more than in the Lusitania case. We offer to pay full damages and have said so. With that case, too, is settled so far as we are concerned, at least in principle."

governor, the word "bureaus" was omitted and in its place appeared a repetition of the words, "boards and commissions."

The executive committee of the Ohio Civil Service Commission, meeting in Columbus today, to determine whether to institute a referendum on the civil service measure, may mark time until the attorney-general shall decide whether there is any measure to refer.

Mayo Foster of Cleveland, was to preside over the committee meeting. A number of members of the executive committee of the Ohio Civil Service Association, a federation of city officials and others interested in the merit system, were prepared to oppose calling a referendum on the new civil service bill, when that committee opened its meeting here today. Mayo Foster of Cleveland, secretary of the organization, was particularly hostile to a referendum and threatened to resign if such action were taken.

In political circles it was freely predicted that if the civil service (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

(Associated Press Telegram)
Bowling Green, Mo., June 30.—Hundreds of guests from other states many of them prominent in the political and social life of the nation, were in Bowling Green today to attend the wedding of Miss Genevieve Clark, 20-year-old daughter of Champ Clark, speaker of the national house of representatives.

Miss Clark was to be married late today to James M. Thomson, publisher of the New Orleans Item.

Conference Work a Feature
Of Endeavorers' Convention;
Interesting Program Today

The conference work of the Southeast Ohio Christian Endeavor convention, now in session at the East Main Street U. B. church began on Wednesday morning at the early hour of 5 o'clock. It had been planned to hold a sunrise prayer meeting at Moundbuilders Park, but the inclement weather forced a change of the plan, and the meeting was held in the church.

At 8 o'clock sectional school was held in the East Main street school building. The different departments were held in the various rooms of the building and were: Expert endeavor, Rev. W. E. Riebel, junior endeavor, Miss Montgomery, missions, G. T. Rossett, Christian stewardship, Dr. Kendall and Rev. Mr. Ailton, citizenship, Rev. J. G. Spears, committee work, Miss Grindell.

Rev. W. E. Riebel presided at the meeting on Wednesday, which formally opened with a song service, with the devotions led by Rev. L. L. Harris.

Rev. O. C. Wright was the first speaker to be introduced, and the subject assigned him was: "The Value of the Graded Lessons in Securing Accurate Knowledge of the Bible," and Rev. Mr. Wright gave in detail the values to be gained from the use of the graded lessons and told how they aided in bringing before the pupil an accurate knowledge of the Bible. He divided his address into four parts: Order, Bible truths, impressions, accuracy and the Bible.

He delineated the story of Moses, the ark and the disciples.

Rev. W. F. Harbert was introduced and spoke on "Methods to Be Used in Securing Increased Attendance at Our Sunday Schools." Rev. Mr. Harbert prefaced the address by asking a number of pertinent questions relative to Sunday school attendance, and what the delegates had done personally to promote attendance at Sunday school.

"We have too many empty benches. We have too few people in our churches. We're falling down and letting God try to do the work. I do not believe in having a membership committee in a Sunday school

Missourians that took him at his word, that Bowling Green could scarcely hold them.

To provide quarters for the hundreds whom the townspeople could not entertain sleeping cars were sidetracked in the local railroad yards.

The wedding was to take place on the lawn of "Honey Shuck," the Clark home. Rev. Robert S. Boyd of Louisville, Ky., cousin of the bride, was to be the officiating clergyman.

For weeks wedding presents from far and near have poured into the Clark home. President Wilson sent two silver composites. The Missouri congressional delegation sent a silver flower basket three feet high. A diamond necklace was sent by Congress. The newsmen and paper carriers of the New Orleans item sent a silver tablet, a family of the first page of the Item.

The town of Bowling Green was gaily decorated for the wedding. Flags were flying today from every window and hundreds of yards of bunting adorned the business district. The mayor had issued a proclamation, calling on the townspeople to clean up for the wedding guests.

Among the wedding guests were Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal; Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, former chairman of the Democratic national committee; Congressman Mann, of Chicago, Republican leader in the house of Paris, June 30.—A Havas Agency dispatch from Athens, says the exhaustion of the Turks facing the French forces on the Gallipoli peninsula is evident and leads to the belief that the Turkish position at Kritthia will soon be taken by assault. In a recent advance made by the French, it is added, 6,000 Turks were found dead in the trenches on the front line.

Recent fighting in the Dardanelles has resulted in an appreciable advance by the allies, the dispatch declares. The French troops under the inspiring leadership of General Gouraud and commander of the French expeditionary force at the Dardanelles particularly distinguishing themselves. Facing the French, the Athens correspondent continues the Turkish front does not exceed three and one quarter miles, which artillery sweeps continually. The Turks are meeting with growing difficulties in bringing up reinforcements and supplies while the allies have every facility for supplying their needs.

It is reported from a reliable source, the correspondent adds, that German officers have left Jaffa, in Palestine, and an important port in a neutral state for Tripoli to lead the natives there against the Italians. The Turks, the correspondent reports are said to have gained to their cause a Senussi chief, who promises a general uprising of the Arabs in Tripoli.

PROJECTILE STEEL.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Pittsburg, Pa., June 30.—Steel mills in the Pittsburgh district have received within the past few days orders for projectile steel which aggregate 75,000 tons. Early in the year steel of this grade was offered at $31 a ton, but latest sales are said to have been made at $38.

Tin plate mills in the district also are receiving foreign orders for quick delivery, enough having been booked, it is reported to keep the mills in operation the remainder of the year.

The McKeesport Tin Plate company has commenced construction of a 20-mill addition to its plant, and the East-Canaanburg Tin Plate company has started work on a 12-mill addition.

U. S. SUBMARINE IS ASHORE BUT NOT IN DANGER

(Associated Press Telegram)

San Francisco, June 30.—The United States submarine H-3 went ashore late last night, five miles south of Point Sur, 120 miles from San Francisco, according to radio dispatches received early today by Captain F. M. Bennett, commandant at Mare Island navy yard. No information as to the cause of the accident was contained in the message, but it was stated that the submarine was in no danger, and that she had not sprung a leak.

The H-3 left San Diego in company with submarines H-1 and H-2 conveyed by the monitor Cheyenne and was proceeding to San Francisco to participate in a Fourth of July program at the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Radiograms received later from the steamer Arizona, bound from New York to San Francisco said the vessel was standing by the stranded submarine and that it probably would be possible to float her at daylight. The H-3 is commanded by Lieutenant W. F. Newton.

The H-3 was driven off her course by a stiff wind. At midnight a message received from Lieutenant Newton gave the information that no one on board the submarine had been injured and that the craft had not sprung a leak. The United States coast guard cutter McCullough shortly before midnight was ordered to rush to the aid of the H-3. The cutter, however, was reported to have received a message several hours later that her assistance was not needed.

The steamer Arizona, reported standing by last night, arrived here early today.

A wireless message received today from the steamer Harvard said the H-3 was in no immediate danger. The monitor Cheyenne submarine tender reported she would need no assistance to get the H-3 into safe waters.

Peace Conference Between
Leaders of Mexican Factions
Is Believed to be a Possibility

El Paso, Tex., June 30.—The possibility of peace being considered soon by leaders of the two larger warring factions in Mexico and the continued search by federal authorities for Felix Diaz, nephew of former President Diaz reported last night to have reached El Paso secretly, were the outstanding features of the Mexican situation here today.

Jose Isabel Robles, minister of war in the cabinet of Bulacio Gutierrez former provisional president, was authority for the statement that leaders of the two dominant factions agreed to discuss peace terms. Robles declined to discuss any of the proposed terms, but expressed the belief that developments in line with this suggestion might be expected by the middle of July. Robles arrived yesterday from the south, prepared to discuss the peace terms.

Since the overthrow of the Gutierrez government, Robles says he has taken no part in the Carranza or Villa cause, but has devoted his efforts to bringing about an understanding. Robles is known to have conferred with men high in the councils of both factions.

London, June 30.—Russia's reply to the brilliant series of Austro-German victories in Galicia is a law setting up a board of munitions empowered to spend unlimited money and given virtually unrestricted power over all private industries in the whole of the country.

It is reported from Petrograd that the creation of the board became law with a celerity that was absolutely astounding, which is taken to indicate that the country fully realizes that the recent disasters to the forces of Grand Duke Nicholas largely were due to lack of munitions and equipment.

With comparative quiet prevailing on all the fronts except that along the border surrounding Russian Poland and Galicia, the attention of the English public again is turned toward diplomatic and domestic problems.

Special dispatches from the Balkans declare that Bulgaria is not dissatisfied with the territory offered her by the entente allies. That Turkey has not lost hope of reconciling her dangerous neighbor, however, is shown by the news that Bulgarian-Turkish negotiations looking to the delimitation of the frontiers of their respective countries will be removed in Constantinople.

Rumor of a break in the diplomatic relations between Italy and Turkey again are rife. With the exception of the French claim that they have recovered all the trenches which the Germans had recaptured in the Vosges mountains, no change in the military situation on the western battle line is reported.

Peace Conference Between
Leaders of Mexican Factions
Is Believed to be a Possibility

An all night search failed to disclose the whereabouts of Felix Diaz, Friends of Diaz were silent on the subject, while adherents of General Huerta, professed ignorance of the motive of the Diaz visit.

Advices to the railroad office headquarters in Jauca said General Villa, entrenched at Encarnacion, thirty miles south of Aguascalientes, was engaged in desperate fighting with the Carranza forces under immediate command of General Benjamin Mill.

Details are lacking.

In a message to Miguel Diaz Robles, his foreign minister, General Villa expressed pleasure over the action of American authorities in apprehending General Huerta and Orozco. Villa instructed Robles to telegraph President Wilson his appreciation.

General Marcelo Caraveo, ex-deretate and Frank Alford, were arrested by federal officials near connection with the alleged Huerta plot to launch a new revolution in Mexico. They are being detained at George Oliver, United States consulate.

Attorney General Asked to Define an Officer's Right to Resign in Time of Peace.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 30.—Attorney General Gregory today asked Secretary Garrison for a statement of the facts in the case of Lieutenant Colonel Odus C. Horney, an army ordnance officer commanding Picatinny arsenal at Dover, N. J., whose resignation to take a position with the Dupont Powder company, prompted Mr. Garrison to ask for an opinion as to an officer's right to resign in time of peace.

Mr. Garrison will decide the feasibility of accepting resignations of ordnance officers, after the attorney general has decided what the law is. Mr. Garrison pointed out today that the question might be raised whether an ordnance officer might not be doing the government a good service in resigning, if his resignation meant the development of commercial arms and ammunition plants. Development of private plants in time of peace, he pointed out, would materially strengthen the resources of the army. Major William A. Phillips, the officer, whose case is pending, tendered his resignation after Attorney General Gregory's opinion had been sought.

Missions," and her prayer was a well written history of the establishment of mission work, and Miss Bowers gave in detail the formation of the different missionary societies for foreign work, and much of the early work was done in west Africa.

Prof. Newell then sang: "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."
Miss Myrtle Metzger, who has spent the past year teaching in a mission school in South Carolina, read a paper on "Through You," and which pictured what Home Missions might mean to the mind. "The word missions has music to it," said the speaker, "and home always conveys the meaning of 'sacred' and so in Home Missions we have the translation 'sacred music.'" The interest has grown in home missions and those who have accomplished it will receive their reward.

There are 50,000,000 people in the United States who do not attend religious service and great stretches are found where there is no church. There are many nationalities who need help; first the Indian calls for help and many desolate people need religious assistance; the mountaineers too, are in need of instruction.

Following a hymn sung by the convention Miss Mathilda Weber was introduced. Miss Weber is of the Philippine Mission, and her address was featured by a resume of her experiences in the latest island acquisition of the United States. For a short time Miss Weber considered the island before the occupation by the Spanish. The Filipino's idea of Heaven was a place of no work and a good place to eat. There are eight Christian tribes in the Philippines today, but they retain many of their old superstitions.

America established the school system, which Miss Weber said she thought was one of the best in the world, and it is being taken advantage of, but the schools can not accommodate all the students. America's occupation has educated the Filipino in his tilling of the land, and the government is endeavoring to teach the uses of corn as a substitute for rice as a food.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS WILL DEBATE

HALL.

SUMNER.

Thursday evening special for the Christian Endeavor convention of Southeast Ohio, now being held at East Main Street U. B. church; Parade at 7:30 and at 8:30; Hall and Sumner will debate on the great question: "Shall It Be License or Prohibition?" at the Newark high school auditorium. All men are especially invited. Also notice the date has been changed for the debate on account of unforeseen things happening.

East Main street church and following the debates and music the following members were named for the ministerial institute committee on nominations and recommendations: Rev. L. J. Hopper, W. V. Hartel and Dr. R. A. Hitt.

The speakers for the evening at the two churches were H. C. Cridland, Sunday school expert from Montgomery county and Dr. J. S. Kendall, stewardship secretary, and these two alternated at the two churches.

At the East Main street church a large assemblage gathered and the services opened with the song, "Jesus, My King." At the Tenth street church, of which Rev. Mr. White is pastor, a large congregation assembled and the music was furnished by Miss Verda Mues, conference soloist.

Mr. H. C. Cridland brought a message from the Miami county conference and delivered his address which was entitled the "Three R's." The "R's" were first request, and dealt with Sunday school officers and teachers, and Mr. Cridland told how more was taught by action than by words. Second was results. There is one out of every six inhabitants in North America who attend Sunday school and in three years the Sunday-school should have an estimated attendance of 1,133,000. The third was responsibility, and this responsibility is best borne by complete preparation on the part of the teacher and Mr. Cridland told the story of the teacher who prepared her lesson on the street car on the way to church. He also told of the three "M's" Matter, Mind and Method.

Mr. J. S. Kendall who also spoke Tuesday afternoon gave an address on "The Great Ought" and developed the thought of the tithes spoken of in the Scripture. He told how people now devote from one-seventh to one-tenth of their time to God, a very small percentage. The fundamental laws are God's laws and as such should be obeyed.

Charles J. Schlegel Now of New York, Can Hardly Find Any Landmarks of Boyhood Days

Mr. Charles J. Schlegel of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is a member of the firm of Charles A. Schierin and Co., the Leather Belt manufacturers of New York, spent Monday evening and Thursday with Senator W. E. Miller and the Scheider family. While here he tried to locate some landmarks that would remind him of his boyhood days, but with the wonderful changes and growth of the city he was at a loss to find any. Mr. Schlegel attended school in the old Central school building in the year of 1857-58 and was delighted to meet his former teacher, Miss Laura Jones who like himself is enjoying such good health. His father Jacob Schlegel was an employee of the Newark Machine Works Co., with Reinhard Schender, John V. Schmidt, Charles Lutter, Chas. Mehr, John and J. S. Gray. August Rockel with other young men of that day who contributed so largely to make Newark the city of today.

Mr. Schlegel is a genial and public spirited citizen, in touch with affairs of his great city, using his efforts for the benefit of mankind. In addition to his large business interests he has time for his church and Sunday-school work and has been called to many responsible duties. He is at present the treasurer of the Henry Ward Beecher Memorial Fund that brings him in touch with many of the great men of New York.

Mr. Schlegel left New York May 1 on the passenger steamer Finland for California it being the first boat to carry passengers through the Panama canal and he has put in the time of his trip in the far west and stopped here on his return to his home.

CHANGE

association decides not to institute a referendum, none will be called, despite the desire of the new public employees' organization that the bill be sent to a test vote of the people.

Discovery that the Barnes-Moore civil service bill, as signed by Governor Willis, Speaker Conover and Lieutenant-Governor Arnold, and now on file with the secretary of state, contained material differences from the measure passed by the legislature and thereby may be invalidated, was an added reason why the association officials hesitated about calling a referendum.

Attorney-General Turner said today the question of the error in the bill had not been referred to him and he had no opinion to express. Governor Willis made no comment when his attention was called to the apparent errors. Clerk John Maynard, of the house, said he had no knowledge of how the mistake occurred, but indicated that it was in the printed copy, prepared after the bill was passed by both houses.

The copy, signed by the governor and other officials, omits the word "bureaus," in a section specifying what offices are exempt from provisions of classified service, and contains instead the words, "boards and commissions."

This is the section of the bill as passed by both houses, which accepted a conference committee's report on it. "The members of all boards and commissions and heads of principal departments and bureaus appointed by the governor and with his consent." This is the way that section of the bill as signed by the governor read.

"The members of all boards and commissions and heads of principal departments, boards and commissions appointed by the governor," etc. Another error occurs in the same paragraph. The phrase "Heads of all departments," as passed by the assembly has been changed to "all heads of departments."

A number of state officials today expressed the opinion that the only method of determining the effectiveness of the bill as it stands, is to institute a test suit in the supreme court. State employees whose jobs are endangered by the new law which would go into effect ordinarily about August 26, were highly elated over the possibility of the laws being nullified by the clerical errors discovered.

A few lawyers in the attorney general's department argued unofficially that the errors should not invalidate the law inasmuch as legislative records showed plainly the intent of the lawmakers to include the word "bureaus," and that this intention should be effective. They added the explanation that signature of the governor is not absolutely necessary as a measure may become law without his approval.

Only six members of the executive committee of the Civil Service Association were present when the meeting was started. They were: Chas. B. Wilby, Cincinnati, president; Mayo Fessler, Cleveland, secretary; L. D. Upson, Dayton; C. H. Stollberg, Canton; Charles H. Bryson, Columbus, and Charles T. Warner, Columbus.

WEDDING GUESTS
IN TRAIN WRECK;
NONE WAS HURT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Bowling Green, Mo., June 30.—On the morning of the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Champ Clark, wife of the speaker of the national house of representatives, jumped out of bed at the news of the derailment of a train bearing guests to the wedding, and without waking her husband, or any member of the bridal party, organized a relief automobile party and went to the scene of the accident.

Bennett Clark, her son, a clerk at the speaker's table in the house of representatives, was the only other member of the Clark family to awaken during the excitement. He with his mother and a dozen newspapermen, sent to Bowling Green to report the wedding, composed the relief party.

Four cars of the Chicago & Alton passenger train, en route from Kansas City to Chicago, left the rails at Curryville, six miles west of Bowling Green. Among the guests to the Clark-Thompson wedding on the train were two brothers of Mrs. Clark, George and Joel Bennett, and the latter's wife. None of the passengers were injured, though all were badly shaken up.

The accident occurred about midnight and an hour later a railroad man went to the Clark home and announced the train had been wrecked. A string of automobiles, headed by one carrying Bennett and Mrs. Clark, raced to Curryville and brought to Bowling Green some of the stalled wedding guests.

Miss Genevieve Clark is to be married today to James McIlhenny Thompson, publisher of the New Orleans Item. Mr. Thompson and a majority of the bridal party reached Bowling Green last night on a train preceding the one which was derailed.

Advance of Civilization.

The more comparison is made between the manslaughter methods introduced by the participants in the present European war and those in vogue during the Civil war in this country the more vivid the contrast appears.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

One in February.

To put it somewhat differently, what is so blankly blank as a day in June?—Chicago Herald.

Yaquis.

It is the observation of Americans who know somewhat of Mexico that the Yaqui is more industrious and dependable, as well as more fiercely warlike under provocation, than the Mexicans. As he has never been without the necessary provocation he has never had a chance to cease fighting, and it is much to be doubted if the threat of landing our marines and bluejackets, and their machine guns, has had the effect of reducing him to submission before a shot is fired.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Going to Europe.

One way to correct this trouble, if people are bound to go to Europe during the war, is to forbid the steamship companies to sell transportation to anyone who does not have a passport. They have been warned, it is said, as to carrying people without passports, but as they do not heed the warning, it would be well for the Washington authorities to deal more drastically with them.—Buffalo Express.

Smallest Republic.

The smallest republic in the world, the tiny independent state of San Marino, has entered the war, having issued a declaration against Austria and placed its entire army of 35 officers and 950 men in the field. San Marino is a territory 38 miles square with a population of 11,000. It lies south of Rimini, near the Adriatic coast.—The Christian Herald.

Getting Busy.

While lamentations are heard in various quarters regarding the hardships imposed on American shipping by the La Follette seaman's law, American shipyards are rushed with orders for freight and passenger craft. Over fifty steamers are now on the ways in Atlantic coast building yards.—Omaha Bee.

Equal Suffrage.

One of the latest objections raised to equal suffrage is that it will, if adopted, double the time, double the energy, and practically double the outlay of money devoted to elections and primaries and to running the machinery of government. Perhaps the best possible answer to this is that in states where equal suffrage obtains today no such conditions exist. But if the objection were based on fact, that would not affect the main proposition, which is that, over and above and beyond every other consideration, women are entitled to the same political rights as men. If economy is to be a governing factor in the situation, then the fewer the men voters the cheaper the election expense. It is not difficult to see where this kind of reasoning, if pursued, would land democracy.—Christian Science Monitor.

Money Saved.

Incidentally, we might add to our favorable trade balance the $100,000,000 which Secretary Lane says American tourists are going to spend at home instead of in Europe this year.—Chicago Herald.

Pointed Observations

The weather man says it will be cooler followed by warmer weather. Lot of wisdom in this forecast.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

There is certainly no reason why every idle man in the cities should not now go forth like a hero and help to save the wheat.—Galveston News.

Tell a girl she's your queen and you'll be ace high with her.—Philadelphia Record.

Military expert says: "The Czar can afford to lose millions of men. The Kaiser cannot." But so far as willingness to sacrifice somebody else is concerned the Kaiser is as good as a sport as the Czar any day.—Wall Street Journal.

One of the most encouraging signs of the times is the way farm laborers, who had come to the city to live, are looking for and finding jobs in the country again.—Indianapolis News.

The attempt at Marietta, Ga., to boycott the Jews in retaliation for Governor Slaton's act in commuting the sentence of Leo M. Frank is a characteristic exhibition of anti-Semitism, fortunately rare in this country. It is the same spirit that makes lynching possible.—Springfield Republican.

Instead of going to some other city the Republican convention is coming right back to Chicago, where it all happened, and live it down.—Chicago Herald.

The bathing beach at Atlantic City is as well patrolled as any—perhaps better. When eight bathers under such conditions, the fact is emphasized that the duty of safeguarding his life rests primarily with the individual bather.—New York World.

In other words, that latest scheme to "force peace upon the nations" seems designed to put the fist in pacifist.—Manchester Union.

It is perhaps significant that since the first American note on the Lusitania there has apparently been no effort to duplicate that tragedy or one even remotely approaching it in horror.—Chicago Herald.

President Lowell of Harvard says that a man is at his zenith, mentally and physically, at 23. Strange then it is not that the world's heavy work is done by men closer to 50 than to 23.—New York Evening Sun.

Professor Taft in a Cape May bathtub recalls the remark of the lady who graced the reign of the grand monarch '92. "After us the deluge."—Washington Post.

Oh, well, the British dreadnought is as skeered of a dummy German submarine as of a real one.—Rochester Herald.

New York City has a municipal flag, but since the design does not include a lobster rampant and a four-card flush it will never be recognized in the provinces.—Washington Herald.

If the Czar gets out of this mess with a whole skin, we'll bet there will be some railroad building in Russia during the next 25 years.—Rochester Herald.

"I wish you were on the Bench instead of in the classroom," said Justice Hughes to former President Taft at the Yale commencement. Now that's kindly and courteous. So different from where Colonel Roosevelt wishes Dr. Taft was.—New York Evening Telegram.

Talk On Thrift

BY T. D. MAC GREGOR

INDEPENDENT AMERICANS.

"It is a man shows a disposition to pride for his old age, don't discourage him for saying he is stingy. Our most pitiful tragedies are old people who are poor and neglected."—Ed Howe, of Atchison.

The anniversary of our national independence is at hand again, bringing with it, to thoughtful persons, the query, Am I really independent? By this suggestion we do not mean to question the average citizen's political, mental or moral freedom. We refer solely to financial independence or the lack of it.

No man or woman depending solely upon earnings is truly independent, because when earnings fail, the earner is at once dependent upon somebody or something aside from his own efforts.

The real reason for saving is found in the fact that a man does not earn a uniform income from the beginning to the end of his life, whereas his necessities remain practically uniform, or, if anything, increase with advancing years.

All childhood days are unproductive, during which he is cared for by parents or friends. Many of his declining years are unfruitful, so that during the active portion of his life he must provide for old age, if he wishes to assure himself the necessities and comforts of life when his earning days are over.

So the path of financial independence leads through the savings bank, and the really independent Americans are those whose names are found in bank pass-books recording constantly increasing deposits, with occasional withdrawals for good permanent investments.

A Little Fun

The Busy Woman.

"Is she a woman of affairs?"
"Yes; everybody's. She's the neighborhood gossip."—Judge.

Right Up to the Minute.

"How do you like your new flat?"
"Great! The lights in the dining room are concealed in one of those new-fangled glass chopping bowls."—Detroit Free Press.

His Job.

Penman—What's your brother doing now?
Wright—Oh, he's a space writer.
Penman—Space writer?
Wright—Yes; he's writing up astronomy.—Yonkers Statesman.

Why Blame Her?

"I wonder why she thinks John is crazy?"
"Jinx had a chance to propose to her and didn't take advantage of it."—Houston Post.

Bright Boy.

"Pa, does the sun ever rise in the west?"
"Certainly not, my son."
"How dark it must always be out there."—Boston Transcript.

Ignored.

"My wife's dog has a habit of barking at me every time I come home," said one husband. "You're lucky," replied the other. "Mine doesn't notice me that much."—Washington Star.

Often Enough.

He—"You only kiss me now when you want money." She—"Good gracious John, isn't that often enough?"—London Mail.

Pa's Excuse.

"Why do you never take your family out in your car?" "Got seven in my family." "Well, you have a seven-passenger car." "Yes, and when it's full people think I'm operating a jitney bus."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Things to Worry About.
Most of the saloons in the United States are closed tight on the Fourth of July.

Our Daily Special.
Some men borrow trouble and some worry it.

Luke McLuke Says:
A gum chewing girl is somewhat of a pest. But she doesn't aim at the spittoon and miss it every few moments.

What has become of the old fashioned man who used to wear elastic side gutters?

To find out what it is that a woman wants just think of some article and tell her that she can't have it.

Any old thing will do when a thirty-year-old girl wants a husband. But she hunts for something that is up to date when she wants a hat.

After a woman has been married for awhile she begins to realize that the only man in the world who doesn't understand her and who doesn't appreciate her is her husband.

Once in his lifetime every man is going to hold a royal flush. But when he holds it he is going to be doomed to disappointment, for the other players will be busy "looking out of the window," and all he will get on the big hand is the dealer's ante.

And what has become of the old fashioned tad who deemed it a great honor to shake the hand that shook the hand of the heavyweight champion?

A cross eyed man can't help it, and is entitled to sympathy. But what excuse is there for the man who wears his whiskers parted in the middle?

When she is eighteen she wouldn't think of marrying a man unless he had a palace and a limousine for her. When she is twenty-five she is willing to compromise on a husband who will rent her a house that has a big lawn and plenty of roomy closets. When she is thirty she is willing to take a furnished room with a rear alley exposure as long as a husband goes with it.

Columbus is always regarded as a piker in the household which has just discovered that the first baby has its first tooth.

A princess may not know how to thread a needle and she may not know what a thimble looks like, but she always knows enough to carry a card of safety pins in her handbag.

SACHS-BRENNAN.

Pink and white were the predominant colors at the wedding of Miss Helen Josephine Brennan, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Brennan of North Fifth street, and Mr. Willis Francis Sachs, which was solemnized at St. Francis de Sales church at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

The high altar was banked with great clusters of daisies and the light of myriads of candles illuminated the decorations. The priestly with formed a half circle, was covered with white and draped with hangings of white chiffon over which had been festooned ropes of smiles. From the sanctuary lamp fell a shower of daisies caught on white ribbons. Standards bearing white lilies were used back of the priestly with the cathedral candles.

While the guests assembled, Miss Alice Mooney of Cleveland sang "Ave Marie," and during the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament which followed the ceremony, Theodore Kemp sang the "O Salutaris," while a male quartet sang the remainder of the benediction music.

The bride was attended by the matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. William Foley, her maid of honor, Miss Helen Mooney of Cleveland, and her two maids, Misses Carrie Brennan and Katherine Sachs. Little Miss Angela Brennan acted as flower girl.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white crepe metron with the Empire waist and the bodice was of rosepoint lace. The train which was fashioned at the waist was full length and finished with scallops, and the bridal veil was fitted to the train, and was worn with a Castle cap of lace and orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was a gorgeous shower of white roses and swainsons, caught with a lace scarf.

Mrs. Foley, matron of honor, wore ivory tinted crepe de chine accented with lace trimmings and her hat was a poke bonnet of white maline with pink ostrich tips. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

The maids' gowns were of the same design, differing only in color. They wore quaint taffeta frocks with the full skirts made on cords and the bodices were of the silk and not caught with flowers. Court veils the same color as the gown were worn with the Castle bob forehead bands of the same colored flowers. Miss Catherine Sachs' gown was of green, Miss Carrie Brennan's of yellow and Miss Helen Mooney wore pink. All carried Colonial nosegays of the variegated flowers.

Little Miss Angela Brennan, the flower girl, wore a little frock of white net with the butterfly sash of pink maline and a wreath of pink flowers on her head. The white basket was filled with pink and white blossoms.

The bride was given away by Mr. William Foley, and the bridegroom was attended by his best man, Mr. Robert Brennan. The ushers were Edgar J. Mooney and Eugene Mooney of Cleveland, Harold Brennan and Edwin Stedem.

Rev. Father B. M. O'Boylan, pastor of the church read the marriage service of the Catholic church, assisted by Rev. Father Ruane and a number of altar boys. Following the ceremony the pastor gave benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Following the service a reception dance was given at the Brennan Hall, cards having been issued only to the relatives of the bride and bridegroom. The reception decorations carried out the color effect of pink and white and again daisies and lilies were used. The bridal table was arranged with a mound of daisies and a huge little bow of pink was placed in front of the bridal couple and daisies were scattered the length of the table. Covers were laid for sixteen. An orchestra arranged in the balcony furnished a program for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sachs left during the evening for a wedding trip to Yellow Stone Park, and on their return will be at home at 36 Granville street.

The bride wore a traveling suit of navy blue faille silk with a white hat. Mrs. Sachs is the daughter of Mrs. J. C. Brennan, and was graduated from the St. Francis de Sales High school and is an artist of ability in water colors. Mr. Sachs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sachs of North Eleventh street and is employed as time keeper at the B and O railroad offices.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Carrie Mooney, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mooney, Misses Helen and Alice Mooney, Messrs. Eugene and Raymond Mooney of Cleveland, James McCarthy, Grace McCarthy, Mrs. Mary Moore, and Mr. B. C. Moore of Zanesville, Mrs. Arthur Arndt of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Williams of Columbus, Miss Lulu Toole of Zanesville, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fitzgerald of Ravenna.

BARRY-SHAUGHNESSY.
The wedding of Miss Katherine Shaughnessy of Elmwood avenue, and Mr. David Edward Barry of Baltimore, Md., was solemnized at St. Francis de Sales church on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The wedding colors were yellow and white and great profusions of field daisies were used in carrying out the color scheme. Clusters of them festooned the altars, and the priestly, which was of white, draped with yellow tulle was covered with daisy chains. Daisy chains were used at the pews and cathedral candles and palms were used in the sanctuary.

The Lohengrin wedding march was played by the organist, and at the appointed hour, the bridal couple took their places. The bride was attended by her maid, Miss Margaret Dwyer, while the bridegroom's best man, was

Mr. Raymond Kuffeth of Baltimore, Maryland.

The bride wore a gown of ivory tinted pussy willow satin, with-out the train. The gown was fashioned with an overdrape of heavy lace and the full length veil was caught in a flare cap with pearls and lilies of the valley. The bridal bouquet was a shower of valley lilies, and was tied with tulle.

Miss Margaret Dwyer wore a costume of yellow crepe metron made with a coat of silver lace. She wore a large hat of yellow maline with yellow ostrich trimmings. Her bouquet was of sunburst roses.

The ushers were Messrs. James Schaller and John Dwyer.

"Over the Wire"

My new suit has just arrived. I'm simply wild about it, and Jack thinks it's quite the best I've had this season. I'm going to wear it to Long Beach this afternoon, so you can judge for yourself. It's made of natural-color ponce. The coat is bolero in front, but it's fitted in the back with little gores let in, and is hand stitched with red worsted.

Oh, not too much of it; just outlines the front and around the hem of the sleeves. And, oh, yes, the pockets in the skirt are edged with it. The front and back of the skirt are made with loose pleats. At first I thought Madam had forgotten and not pressed the pleats, but after I put it on I found that they fell in beautifully soft folds. It must be her latest wrinkle. My natural straw hat with the red silk facing and the red military stick-up will be just right. Now I won't keep you a minute longer.

In Milady's Boudoir

By Gwen Sears

If women built up their bodies by outdoor exercise and at the same time cared for delicate complexions and fine hair, Americans would be the most beautiful women in the world. There is only one thing that may prevent that ambition and that is the nerves. You may think because the Frenchwoman is quick and slim, that she is a bundle of nerves, but that is not so. She is temperamental and her emotions are near the surface, but her nerves have rest because she never worries from one day to the next.

The American does such a host of nerve racking things to mar her beauty. I know a woman who is free every hour of the week, and yet she will shop on Saturday when the mental tension of a crowded store is at its height. We Americans never rest for we fill our spare moments in reading exciting fiction, watching intense dramas, or playing bridge as if our lives depended on it.

You must learn to control your mind when there is real need of physical rest, for worry only too quickly leaves its stamp on the features. If you have missed a train don't pace the platform, and search the face of the clock, and frown at the gateman.

Do your best to cultivate repose and nerve control and you will conquer our national weakness. Follow the English habit of taking cross country walks in the open air, and study the French woman's clever maneuvers to improve her natural looks. The combination of these three should give you real claims to that elusive quality known as beauty.

Your Boys and Girls

I do not think a growing boy ought to eat meat more than once a day. He will find plenty of other things to eat—soups especially; thick ones which are very strengthening, cereals, vegetables, milk, etc. The midday meal is the best time to eat meat if you are going to do so only once a day. But this may not prove satisfactory to your family, for many families have the habit of a heavy dinner in the evening when the father is at home. In such a case of course, let the child eat his meat at dinner.

If a small person must have a dose of castor oil—and in hot weather it is essential that the bowels be kept free—give it through the skin. Put a teaspoon or more into the skin over the stomach and abdomen. It will do the work just as well and will do away with the nauseating taste.

Every Day Etiquette

"Should a girl allow a man to call more than once a week?" was Martha's question. "If she finds his society agreeable there is no reason why she should not allow him the privilege of calling oftener," said her aunt.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and could walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertised itself." — Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

MONEY BANKED FROM SALE OF SUBWAY BONDS

City Auditor A. N. Dodd and City Treasurer Cliff Frye on Monday delivered in person subway bonds issued by the city of Newark and worth $240,000 to Sidney Spitzer & Co. of Toledo, receiving that firm's check for $240,859. The $8,599 represented the premium offered by the company and accrued interest on the bonds.

The transaction was closed Monday evening. Tuesday morning the check was cleared through a Toledo banking concern and the $240,859 was placed to the credit of the subway construction fund this morning.

Auditor Dodd announced that an expense of $200 was saved the city by delivering the bonds in person. Had the bonds been sent by express and the business transacted through banks, the exchange would have amounted to about $200 more than the railroad fare and hotel bill for the Toledo trip.

With this money on deposit the city is now free to execute a contract for its share of the work. It is also in position to urge the railroads to make an early agreement regarding the work.

A meeting is scheduled to be held in Princeton tomorrow when the city and the railroads are expected to agree upon the division of the work and execute a contract containing the articles and terms agreed upon.

VALIDITY

OF MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANIES IN OHIO WILL BE TESTED.

Four indictments found against Cincinnati Attorney — Investigation Will be Made.

Cincinnati, June 29. — With the appearance in criminal court today of L. L. Loeb, an attorney of this city and the opening of four sealed indictments against him, it became known that the state department of insurance had selected Cincinnati in which to test the law which they claim invalidates all mutual insurance associations.

"The question is of great importance," Prosecutor Campbell said, "because there are mutual associations operating all over the state and they are composed of some of the best and most substantial business concerns of our large cities."

Loeb was indicted because, it is alleged, he was the "attorney in fact," by which the mutual insurance plan was possible. When the grand jury commenced its investigation, Loeb appeared at the prosecutor's office with his attorney, Charles Leslie, and announced that he had given up his office and had cancelled all his policies. He was released on $500 bond today.

Fleming, on the north side of the Zanesville road. The board has asked the deputy supervisors of elections to name Saturday, July 10, as the date for holding a special election to vote on a $5,000 bond issue for the purpose, the Hanover school board already having $20,000 in the treasury, which had been raised for the purpose of repairing and adding on to the old building.

Wall Street.
New York, June 29. — Further uncertainty was reflected in initial dealings on the stock exchange today with fractional declines in most of the leading shares. The low priced railways showed increased heaviness. Missouri Pacific declined 1/8, repeating its low record of the early part. United States Rubber was the only industrial to manifest strength, reaching a high of 11 1/2, its recent low of 10 1/2. War shares were neglected with a decline of a point in Goodrich. In the foreign market, the London decline extending to a point in Canadian Pacific, St. Paul and Pennsylvania.

Press continued to fluctuate irregularly during the dull first hour with increased activity later. Bonding, New York Central, Erie, Canadian Pacific were among the few railway issues to make any headway. Bethlehem Steel, United States Steel, General Electric, Westinghouse and Baldwin led the way. Mexican Petroleum, Rubber lost much of its advance, but other active industrial shares, notably United States Steel, were firm. Further weakness in foreign exchange exerted a restraining influence. Bonds were heavy.

BIG FEATURE TO SHOW AT AUDITORIUM

Newark at last is to have one of the big eastern productions, "The Eternal City," which for months had a successful run at the Astor theatre, Broadway and Forty-fifth street, in New York City.

Hall Caine's supreme dramatic triumph will be presented as an elaborate photo-spectacle in this city at the Auditorium on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 9, 10 and 11, afternoon and evening. The cast includes some of the best known picture players in the country and these were sent abroad to film this master work in the exact locale in which its stirring action occurs.

All the scenes in the Vatican Gardens, in the Castle of St. Angelo, the Coliseum, the famous Roman Forum, the beautiful Villa D'Est in Tivoli, and other historical spots in the Imperial City, were reproduced with the consent of the highest ecclesiastical and civic authorities.

The producers also succeeded in securing the services of thousands of the Roman Carabinieri, and have immortalized with absolutely perfect detail every phase of Hall Caine's wonderful story. The production is on an order of sumptuousness that realizes all the possibilities of the play from a scenic, sartorial and accessorial standpoint.

The manner in which the Pope is introduced as a visible personage fails to offend the most critical, and the dignity and nobility which are inseparably associated with him have been faithfully preserved.

With its unusual environment and its historical significance, the production presents a thrilling combination of realism and romance.

Thousands of Newarkites have read the story of "The Eternal City" and they will now get a chance to see it in a stupendous production which cost a half million dollars. While this play showed in the east at the big theatres at from 25 cents to $2, it will be seen here at the Auditorium for twenty-five and thirty-five cents.

The custom has been started in some Western cities of printing the maiden name of a woman after that of her husband in the directory.

INHERITED NERVOUSNESS

The causes of nervous disorders are of two kinds, predisposing and exciting. Heredity is a predisposing cause. A nervous parent is very liable to have a nervous child. But even with this predisposition the child will not necessarily develop any form of nervous disease without an exciting cause. It may not develop during childhood at all but throughout life a person with an inherited predisposition to nervousness is an easier victim of all forms of nervous disorders than one without it.

Worry, overwork, overstudy and excesses of all kinds are exciting causes and should be avoided by those who know themselves to have inherited a nervous disposition. Thin blood and a general run-down condition of the system are also to be avoided by such people. Be moderate in everything, avoid worry, keep the blood rich and red and the general health built up with a non-alcoholic tonic like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and avoid a nervous breakdown.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a general tonic with a special action on the nerves and relieve and correct many forms of nervous trouble. Your own druggist sells them. GERMANY STOPS THE MANUFACTURE OF COTTON GOODS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Berlin, June 30.—(Via London)—The military commandant of the province of Brandenburg, in which Berlin is situated, has issued an order, effective August 1, prohibiting the manufacture of fabrics wholly or chiefly cotton for nearly all ordinary purposes such as articles of clothing, bed sheets, pillow slips and table cloths.

The presumption from this order is that Germany needs all the cotton available for use in the manufacture of explosives.

New York, June 30.—More than two hundred business and professional men of New York City have signified their intention of taking a month's military training this summer, in a government instruction camp at Pattsburg, N. Y. The promoters of the plan said today that they believed nearly one thousand men would be in attendance when the camp passed to the command of regular army officers on August 10.

This plan is the result of an informal gathering at the Harvard club a few weeks ago, when General Leonard Wood was the guest of honor. General Wood's speech emphasizing the importance of military training for civilians started the movement. Invitations to enroll were sent to more than 15,000 bankers, lawyers, doctors, brokers, clergymen and other business and professional men in and about New York. The response has exceeded expectations.

It was said today that the movement was spreading into other states, and that there were prospects that similar camps would be organized.

SUFFRAGETTE TO USE AUTOMOBILE; FRIENDS' PRESENT

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, June 30.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of National Woman Suffrage association, left New York today for her home at Moylan, Pa., in a new automobile, the gift of the suffragists of New York state. The car was presented to Dr. Shaw yesterday in front of National suffragette headquarters on Fifth avenue and Christened the Eastern Victory.

"This is a long way," said Dr. Shaw, accepting the gift, "from the days when Susan B. Anthony and I campaigned together with one suitcase, because we had not clothes enough to fill two; when we rode in buckboards, ramshackle wagons, any kind of vehicle we could get." Dr. Shaw, who has made seventy-six campaign speeches in the last six weeks, said she hoped to rest at her home for at least a week.

Our Reason

For getting up the delicious blend of Tastwel Coffee was because we believed the people were demanding a better quality than they were getting in the ordinary run of package coffee, and our steadily increasing sales of Tastwel are substantial proof that our reasoning was correct.

It is evidently better, more economical for the consumer to pay a slight increase in price and get a coffee that leaves a good taste and satisfying farewell than to buy an inferior grade at a little less and have that dissatisfied feeling which unfits one for their day's labor.

RADIUM

AND ITS EFFECT UPON DISEASED TISSUES IS DISCUSSED BY AN EXPERT.

Useful Agent May Become Harmful According to Use—Homeopathic Doctors in Convention.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, June 29.—The National Society of Physical Therapies convened today for its twenty-second annual session, in joint meeting here with the American Institute of Homeopathy, President E. P. Mills of Ogden, Utah, in his address reviewed various mechanical and physical measures in the treatment of disease, dwelling upon the value of sunlight, X-rays and radium. In part Dr. Mills said:

"An exposure to the X-ray of a cancerous growth may either destroy it and induce fibrosis—nature's method of cure—or stimulate it to renewed growth, the technique deciding what the effect will be. The hands of almost any of the earlier workers with the X-ray bear immutable evidence of the dangerous effects of this useful agent. If they did not possess the power to do harm, they could not have the power to bring health."

"Sunlight is one of the great gifts of nature. It is the greatest disinfectant in the whole list and is necessary for the healthy development of all forms of life. Deprived of it, either vegetable or animal forms of life do not reach their normal growth. Yet this beneficent agent has another aspect: Sun burns may be the irritative agent required to start up the activity of cancerous development. A word of warning can be uttered against too much of even so good a thing as sunlight."

"As to radium, its effect on the nervous system, if applied for a short period, is stimulative; if applied for a number of hours it produces paralysis. The length of time of application therefore is one of the most important points for study, for opposite effects are produced by long and short exposures."

"Radium has rewritten physics and has opened new avenues for human thought, which may lead to the solution of the mystery of life itself."

Dr. Royal S. Copeland of New York, chairman of the Bureau of Homeopathy of the American Institute of Homeopathy in an address before the institute today, declared that the mortality rate of homeopathic practice is far lower than that of any other school.

"We believe that homeopathy shortens disease, lessens human suffering and prolongs life," he said. "These facts, if they be facts, should be given to society. It is positively criminal to neglect the promulgation of any knowledge that will materially benefit the human race."

Dr. Copeland estimated that at least seven million Americans are being cared for by homeopathic doctors, a number, he said, equal to the adherents of any of the leading religious denominations. He added:

"Homeopathy were as well organized as one of these bodies, it would move forward irresistibly."

He quoted a report from the council of medical education showing that 57 homeopathic hospitals having more than 15,000 beds, treated 74,000 patients with a mortality rate of 17 per cent. These were Class I institutions with complete records. Another class under complete homeopathic control but with faulty records, would add 1,000 beds to the total, he said. The combined property valuation of the two classes was given as $2,500,000. He said that in New York City the homeopathic school commands sixteen per cent of the 16,000 hospital beds in the city and that nearly 12,000 ambulance calls were made by surgeons of homeopathic hospitals in 1914.

"The pioneer work," he said, "is well finished; we are now at our ease and, almost for the first time in a hundred years, have leisure for self-examination. The call for service is louder than ever before. Let us prepare ourselves for a better answer to that call and do our part to perpetuate the honors of homeopathy, so bravely won by our fathers in the faith."

"When Is Cancer Curable?" was the subject of a paper by Dr. Scott Parsons of St. Louis, which was read before the Surgical Society of the American Institute of Homeopathy on Tuesday.

According to Dr. Parsons, the paper was prompted by queries as to why some cases of cancer get well and others die, when the general characteristics, symptoms and type of growth are apparently identical. In part he said:

"As I have thought the subject over it appears to me that there are several factors which make for success or failure in the treatment of this mysterious disease."

"Five essential factors appear to play the all-important role in the cured case of cancer. They are: the type of growth; resistance and susceptibility of the patient; age of the patient; period in which treatment is begun; and method of treatment and technique."

After speaking of the pathology of the different varieties of cancer Dr. Parsons stated that "so far the prophylactic or skin cancers offer the best chances for cure and are amenable to operation, cautery, X-ray and radium."

As to that type of cancer attacking the breast and womb, which giving a much higher mortality, early, radical operation is the only treatment so far furnishing a successful result. The high mortality is due to delayed operation.

"The age of the patient plays an important role. Cancers of all types are to be considered as extremely serious ailments, more so in those of the first and second triennial of life, or from 20 to 30 years of age. Those who live after the best possible chances of recovery."

Cancer surgery has reached a stage of specialization and to be successful requires, on the part of the operator, besides an exact knowledge of anatomy and pathology, boldness, expert technical knowledge, faultless surgical cleanliness and acute surgical judgment."

INSPECTION OF O. E. S. One of the most pleasant events in the history of Newark Chapter, O. E. S., took place on last Monday evening at K. of P. hall, it being the annual inspection. Deputy Inspector Mrs. Minnie Schaefer, in company with her husband, motored over from Mt. Vernon, The Newark officers exemplified the work in a way that is not easily excelled. A large number of visitors were present from the following places: Eighteen from Johnston, twenty from Granville, and others from Hebron, Hanover, Logan, Lexington, Chicago Junction, and Columbus. Worship Patrons Wm. Montgomery from Blairsville, Pa., and Forest Green from Johnston, each made some remarks in which Mr. Green said that he was rather lukewarm on the subject of Eastern Star work until he became patron and began to study the work, and he found it was worthy of his best study and work. Mrs. Schaefer was presented with a silver spoon as a token of remembrance from this chapter. Delightful refreshments rounded out the evening's pleasure in a way that will not be soon forgotten.

JOY RIDE

TAKEN BY TWO YOUNG COUPLES. COST THE MEN $5 FINE EACH.

Girls' Absence Over Night Caused Parents to Seek Police Aid—All in Juvenile Court.

Ray Jarvis and Jay Willson were fined $5 and the costs, each, in juvenile court this morning, a Judge Robbins Hunter, for contributing to the delinquency of Pearl Pinkerton, 16, of West Main street, and May Hupp, 14, of Neal avenue.

The parties were all in court this morning and the girls testified that the boys came along, Monday evening, with a jitney bus and asked them to take a ride. They consented, thinking the boys would let them out at Neal avenue, but, instead, they kept on going until they had reached a point five miles west of Granville. The girls said that one of the boys then got out of the car and extinguished the lights and reported that they had run out of gasoline.

The girls claim that they became frightened at the action of the boys and left them, going to a farmhouse where they obtained permission to remain all night. In the morning the farmer hitched up his team and took them to Granville and purchased tickets for them to this city. Their parents had sought the aid of the police department when the girls failed to return home and yesterday after the girls had told their story, warrants were issued for the boys.

The boys in court this morning claimed the girls were to blame, that they had come along with the bus on a regular trip and that the girls approached them and asked for a ride, and that when they reached West Newark the girls proposed driving into the country for a joyride. The boys denied any wrong intentions and claimed that they had not made any insulting proposals at any time during the trip.

WIFE GOT SUPPER, TOOK POISON AND DIED SOON AFTER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Canton, O., June 29.—Mrs. George Garax, 30, wife of a building mover, took a dose of poison last night, after she had prepared supper for her family of eight, rushed into a room where her husband was, told him what she had done and died before physicians summoned by him reached his home. The motive for the deed is unknown.

Three years ago the population of the world was 1,630,000,000 persons, of which the population of the United States was only 6 per cent.

The number of business failures in Great Britain last year showed a decline of 582.

PONSART CHILD TO BE SENT TO CHILDREN'S HOME

The little nine year old daughter of Mrs. Josephine Ponsart Jacob Valentine, was ordered taken care of by the Children's Home until some further arrangement could be made. The child's father is employed at Detroit, and in all probability he will agree to provide for the little girl. The mother informed the court that she had a good home and was capable of taking care of her daughter but considering the fact that the mother is white and was married to a negro, the court decided that the mother was no fit person to look after the little one.

BURGLARS TAKE GROCERIES AND MEATS TUESDAY

Four burglaries were committed Tuesday night according to reports filed with the police department this morning. Entrance was gained to the office of the bottling works of the Columbus-Hoster Associated Breweries agency operated by George Hader in Clinton street near St. Clair. The Office of the Newark Stamping Company nearby was also entered. From these two places stamps and small change amounting to about $2 was taken.

The George Kates Grocery in South Fifth street and the James McCarty grocery in Cambria street were the other places entered and from these stores the burglars stole a quantity of smoked meats and groceries, the value of which has not been estimated.

Besides these places of business, a report was made to the police headquarters that the home of B. L. Beckfield, Manager of the Hub clothing store, was entered sometime during the early evening and a stick pin and a diamond ring taken.

Early Wednesday morning, Officers Swinehart, Abbot, Harter and Sunkle raided a camp along the creek bottoms in the South End of the city. They took into custody Earl Rouse and "Red" Spickler and lodged them at the city prison. They will be held pending an investigation.

In the camp, the officers found two live chickens and an effort is being made to identify the owners of the poultry. The head of another fowl was found nearby, indicating that chicken was served for at least one meal in the camp.

A member of Mr. Beckfield's family who sat on the porch during the early evening, told the police that when he went up stairs he met a man on the steps, with whom he shook hands, thinking it was a guest who is visiting in the home. He later discovered that the house had been ransacked and believes that he shook hands with the burglar.

HOW THIN PEOPLE CAN PUT ON FLESH

A New Discovery.

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, living dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the foolish foods and funny sawdust diets. On it the flesh cream rub-ons. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating now and eat with every one of those single Sargol tablets. In two weeks note the difference. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy, "stay there" fat should be the net result. Sargol charges your weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—gives the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food and prepares it for the blood in easily assimilated form. Thin people gain all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol, and the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a scientific combination of six of the best flesh-producing elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and Evans' drug store and all other druggists in Newark and vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back.

NOT MERE RELIEF, CURE LOOKED FOR

Another New Nerv-Worth Endorsement—Wm. Henderson's Words of Praise.

"Before taking Nerv-Worth I was very nervous, sleep and rest were greatly disturbed, appetite was none too good, distressing gases gathered on my stomach, I was dizzy, had pains in the hips and back, was very excitable, my limbs jerked in my sleep and I had no ambition. After taking only part of a bottle of Nerv-Worth I feel lots better and feel satisfied Nerv-Worth will cure me. I can already see a big change for the better. For instance I can now sleep fine."

A new lot of local Nerv-Worth endorsements is pouring into the T. J. Evans drug store of which the above is an excellent sample. It was written by Wm. Henderson of No. 23 Harrison St., Newark. There is nothing like these home endorsements in convincing people. Victims of nervous disorders do not have to go outside of Newark for evidence of Nerv-Worth's merits. Buy a bottle of the remedy today at the T. J. Evans drug store. Only a dollar. Money back if no benefits are derived. (Adv.)

DRUNKEN MAN TRIED TO KILL ENTIRE FAMILY

(Associated Press Telegrams)
Fort Wayne, Ind., June 30.—Matthew Cooley, 50, and his son Donald, 10, are dead, and his widow and two daughters are unconscious as the result of what the police say was a plan of Cooley to asphyxiate the entire family.

Neighbors say Cooley went to his home intoxicated last night and that he has threatened to kill himself and family.

Licking County Commissioners Secure Road Improvements From The State Highway Department

County Commissioners Ben. B. Jones, Joseph H. Orr, and Frank R. Dunn have returned from Columbus where they had been called in consultation with Clinton Cowen, state highway commissioner.

The Licking county officials certainly accomplished wonders with the state highway department and brought back news that will be more than pleasing to every resident not only of Newark but the entire county.

Highway Commissioner Cowen has agreed to continue the concrete road from the Moscow bridge just east of Lebanon to the Franklin county line, a distance of 15 1/2 miles. The state engineer has been ordered to prepare his plans and specifications at once so that the letting may be ready for July 21, this year. The letting will be in two separate contracts of seven and a half and eight miles. This is done in order to facilitate the work, the officials being desirous of having it done just as soon as possible, it having originally been agreed to have the complete National road between Zanesville and the Franklin county line complete by Dec. 31, of the present year. This was found impossible and so an extension was asked by the government, which has contributed $120,000 to the road.

For the completion of the National Road west from the Moscow bridge the county will not have to pay a dollar as it has already paid its proportion in furnishing the amount agreed upon for Licking county, $110,000.

Another concession granted by the state highway department to the Licking county commissioners was that of placing a surface treatment on the Columbus road from Granville to the Franklin county line, a distance of about 17 miles. It will consist of either Tarva or Bermuda asphalt. This expense will be borne jointly by the state and county.

The Columbus road has been wearing in many places and the treatment which it will receive will remedy the trouble, a fact which will be agreeable news to all having occasion to use it.

The state also agreed to stand the entire expense for resurfacing the side from the end of the brick pavement on Granville street to the point where the concrete starts on the Granville road. The agreement was entered into with the maintenance department yesterday. It will be resurfaced with bituminous macadam of a thickness of three inches, and will cost the state $6,000.

When the improvements on Granville road, Broadway through Granville and the Columbus road are completed, Licking county will have one of the best market roads in the state. There will be about 31 miles of a smooth road over which all vehicles can make excellent time any season in the year.

The commissioners work did not stop with the above for they also induced the maintenance department to stand one-half of the expense of macadamizing 2,600 feet on the Broadway extension running north from Summit to the second four corners. The contract was let yesterday to J. C. Umboden for $3,375.

The contract for the resurfacing of 1 1/2 miles from the Franklin county line east on the Granville and Columbus road was let to C. Rident of Logan, O., for $6,566.14. The full expense is to be paid by the state.

It will also be pleasing news to know that the state has awarded the contract for resurfacing the Columbus and Granville road from the Franklin county line to the Columbus city limits, a distance of 5 miles, for $62,242.25.

Commissioners Jones, Orr and Dunn may well feel proud of the results which they have accomplished. They have been working for months to bring about the improvements and now the fruits of their labors are about to be realized. The commissioners are entitled to the commendation of every citizen who favors better roads. The improvements which are to be made in Licking county, when completed, will be far reaching and will bring thousands of dollars into the merchants' coffers annually. Especially will this be true from the southern part of the county after the National Road has been completed.

The present members of the board of county commissioners are hustlers and it is due to their efforts that scores of miles of improved highways have been and will be completed in Licking county.

PEACE

WASHINGTON IS NOW WATCHING CLOSELY MEXICAN SITUATION.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, June 29.—The activities of prominent Mexicans now in the United States and others in connection with the Mexican political situation, attracted much attention in official and diplomatic circles here today and caused renewed discussion of the possibility of peace in the southern republic.

These activities included the efforts of General Felipe Angeles, Villa's right hand man, to learn the sentiment of Washington officials toward the Mexican situation; a reported peace move, calling for a conference between General Villa and Obregon on the border and the prospective conference between General Carranza and Charles A. Douglas, his Washington counsel.

Mr. Douglas has gone to Vera Cruz, presumably to impress upon Carranza the viewpoint of the American government as enunciated in a recent statement by President Wilson that the heads of the warring factions in Mexico must settle their differences. Officials here are waiting to see if Gen. Carranza is willing to change his attitude towards peace overtures by General Villa. Carranza has heretofore consistently declined such offers.

Officials were interested today in unofficial reports stating that Jose Isabel Bobles, minister of war in the cabinet of Eulalio Gutierrez, had announced that Generals Villa and Obregon had agreed to discuss terms of peace, perhaps within two weeks. Bobles was said to have hinted that the proposed conference was a result of fears of the leaders of the two factions that the revolution popularly believed about to be begun by General Huerta would so complicate the situation in Mexico that American intervention might follow.

General Angeles still was today continuing to seek the viewpoint of the Washington government towards the Mexican problem. In a statement he declared that he was opposed to Huerta and that he represented in Mexican politics. He added that he was in thorough accord with President Wilson that the Mexican factions compromise their differences.

Whatever the outcome, however, of the activities of the Mexican leaders, towards the situation in the southern republic, nothing will be done by the Washington government until President Wilson returns from New Hampshire.
